ICE SCULPTURE RETURNS!!!

It was an idea we started back in 1993 and was the idea of the late Gary Snyder. Appropriately enough it was cancelled the year he passed away in 2003, due to his passing that same week.

After a 6 year layoff, our Live Ice Sculpture display is back!!!

See the flyer enclosed for all the details, but don't miss it. It really is a spectacular event and we are proud to present it again in conjunction with the Columbian Square Holiday Celebration.

Start a Holiday Layaway

With the holidays fast approaching, it's a great time to start a Holiday Layaway. We are now accepting layaways for this 2009 Holiday Season. It's simple, put down 20% of the purchase price and then set your own convenient schedule for making payments. As long as it's picked up by December 20th, we'll let you set your own terms. There is no interest or extra charge for this service.

Here's a hint for the busy shopper: Call us before you come to pick up your layaway and we'll have it boxed and wrapped when you get here. All you'll have to do is make the final payment and go.

Black Friday Sale (Saturday too)!!!

Start your shopping on the most famous shopping day of the year and save. Everything at Snyder Jewelers will be 25% OFF on Friday, Nov 27 & Saturday Nov. 28.

This sale includes all diamond rings, earrings, pendants and diamond studs. It also includes our entire line of silver jewelry, Beachcomber / Expression Jewelry and Zable bead jewelry. Watches, Colored Gemstones & Pearls too. If you are buying jewelry this Christmas this is the weekend to shop and save!

Sorry, this sale cannot be combined with any other discount or promotion.

Aunts, Babysitters, Teachers, Nieces & Friends

Need gifts on a budget for all these people on your list? We have an entire silver jewelry line priced between $15 to $150 per item. So, instead of giving a gift card to the I-tunes store, pick up a flashy, fashionable pair of silver earrings.

Instead of giving a cash gift, give a nice sterling silver bracelet with matching necklace.

Whoever you need to shop for this Holiday Season we have a gift for!

Appraisal & Repair Deadline

As we do every year entering the Holiday Season we will be suspending our Insurance Appraisal writing & jewelry repairing to make time for Holiday retail activities. If you need an appraisal completed for insurance purposes, please submit your jewelry prior to November 20. We will not be writing appraisals between Nov. 20, 2009 and New Year's Day. Contact your insurance agent to find out if you are due for an appraisal update.

If you need a piece of jewelry repaired, we urge you to bring it in as soon as possible. We suspend all repair work on December 10, 2009. This is so our repair people can concentrate on making inventory & custom design items during the busiest part of December. Any repairs left after Dec.8 will not be ready until after Christmas.
